FROM : Harold P. Ford, Associate Chairman

1. In behalf of the National Intelligence Council (NIC), I want to express our appreciation for making [redacted] available to the NIC for our just-completed retreat [redacted]

2. He did a good job in giving our group a candid view of how certain senior consumers judge the NIC's products, and some useful suggestions for improving the analysis and formatting of those products. [redacted] was equally impressive in his informal contracts with our officers. He is to be especially commended for the articulate and straightforward manner in which he faced a group of very senior officers--some of them initially predisposed to some skepticism.

STAT

3. Perhaps the best endorsement of [redacted] performance is the fact that our boss, Harry Rowen (C/NIC) will be asking if [redacted] might lend some informal followup methodological advice OTE to some of our specific National Intelligence Estimates now underway.
